The beautiful 102 foot Almagores II was built in the Southern Wind Shipyard in Cape Town in 2012. She is the first of the SW102, designed by Farr Yacht Design with the general concept, exteriors and interiors by Nauta Design.

She is an Italian flagged yacht, and her owner comments: "Almagores II matched my desire for comfort with my passion for sailing."

Booking arrangements have already been made in anticipation to accommodate the yacht in V&AW, as her sheer size will prevent her from mooring at Royal Cape.
